

Name _____

Analyze Character

A character in a story is usually a person. You find out about characters by paying attention to how they act, what they say, and what others say about them.

Use this chart to keep track of character information. In each box, write something you know about the character.

Title: _____

